CAMPBELL'S "STAR" WITNESS.

George F. Weaver Proves Himself a Bigger Liar Than a Chinese Mandarin.

Another one of Tom Campbell's "star" witnesses has come to grief.

George F. Weaver, over whom the Goshelites papers had a conviction, saying he had seen a rifle barrel sticking out of the window of the office of the Secretary of State on January 30th, 1900, the day Mr. Goebel was shot, was not in Frankfort that day.

He was one hundred and thirty miles from Frankfort.

The facts, as told herein, are taken from indisputable records; and show that Weaver was in Grayson Springs on the day Mr. Goebel was shot!

When George F. Weaver testified that he reached Frankfort on January 29th, and saw the gun sticking out of the window of Calhoun Powers' office, he was simply lying.

On the 29th day of January, 1900, Mr. Weaver was at Clarkson or Grayson Springs Station, in Grayson county, Ky., seventy miles West of Louisville. He had been there for a number of weeks. On the 29th he took the application for members in the Order of the Woodmen of the World of Henry

Gore, Henry Dean, J. E. Mulhall and Benedict Newton, all residents of Grayson county and reputable citizens, who will testify to the correctness of this statement. Mr. Weaver signed their applications and dated them himself in their presence on this day, January 29th, 1900.

On January 30, the day Mr. Goebel was shot, George F. Weaver was at the Higdon Hotel in Grayson Springs, and remained in and about there the entire day, talking to people about joining the Order and taking insurance. In the evening of the same day he attended a meeting of the Woodmen of the World and testified the following gentlemen and officers: C. W. Carter, William H. Horell, J. M. Cubbage, William J. Hodge, B. A. Hillard, Thomas Burke and W. T. Denton, as shown by the records of the Order, signed by the Secretary, William J. Hodge. He also, on the same night and in the presence of the Lodge, testified to the following gentlemen and officers: C. W. Carter, William H. Horell, J. M. Cubbage, William J. Hodge, B. A. Hillard, Thomas Burke and W. T. Denton, as shown by the records of the Order, signed by the Secretary, William J. Hodge and Ned Saunders.

These facts can be established at Grayson Springs by any number of citizens who saw Weaver when there.

MRS. LIZZIE LAYTON.

Her Death This Morning—A Sufferer For Nine Years.

Mrs. Lizzie Layton, wife of Mr. O. G. Layton, died this morning at 12:30 at her home on Lee street after an illness of nine years of a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Layton was formerly Miss Lizzie Peck of the county, and she was the last one of a family. She leaves six children—two daughters, Mrs. Carrie Turnipseed and Mrs. Julia Buhner of Cincinnati, and four sons, John W., Charles T., Martin and Roland.

The funeral will occur tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock at her late residence, the service being conducted by Mr. Howard T. Cree of the Christian Church.

MASON COUNTY WOMAN.

Jumps From Window and is Fatally Injured at Dayton, O.

A special from Dayton, O., says that at noon Saturday a woman of comely appearance, about 30 years old, bearing evidence of refinement and culture, was assigned with an escort to a room in the New York Hotel in that city.

The pair registered as Walter E. Roland and wife and were strangers there. The man soon left the hotel and did not return.

At 9 o'clock Saturday night the woman jumped from the window of her room to the stone-paved court in the rear of the hotel, a distance of over fifteen feet, sustaining probably fatal injuries.

She gave her name to the officers as Lucy Parle, and stated that she lived in Maysville.

She pitiously implored Sergeant Parle to kill her and put her out of her misery, saying that her life was worthless since her lover had deserted her.

The Ledger representative thinks the party in question was formerly a resident of the Orangewood neighborhood, where she married a Mr. Parle.

Some time since she came to this city, remaining quiet for some time.

She was addicted to the use of opium, and while she was never arrested the police advised her that she had better leave it alone.

She departed and nothing had been heard from her up to the present occurrence.

Defenses Cannot Be Cured By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional means. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running ear, or "catarrh of the Eustachian tube," which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH CURE. Send circulars, and name of Dr. J. C. Hall, Catarrh Cure, Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the best.

This Prominent Fleming County Citizen Expires Sunday.

Mr. Alfred Turner, one of the best known and prominent farmers of Fleming county, died Sunday at his home near Mt. Carmel.

Deceased was about 55 years of age.

His wife, who survives, was a daughter of Captain Charles Nale of Mt. Carmel, and is a cousin of Mrs. J. R. Davis of near this city.

He leaves also two daughters, Mrs. Cook and Miss May Newwood Turner, and two brothers, George and Robert Turner of Fleming county.

The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this morning, with services by the Rev. Clark of the M. E. Church, South, after which the remains were interred in the Cemetery at Mt. Carmel.

SCENE OF SORROW

All Italy Mourns the Loss of Her Late Ruler, the Good King Humbert.

THE DETAILS OF THE ASSASSINATION

The Assassin Who Is Strictly Guarded in His Prison, Seems Indifferent to His Horrible Crime.

Telegrams From All the Towns and Villages in Italy Show That Profound Grief Prevails Throughout the Entire Country.

Monza, Italy, July 31.—Few additional details of the assassination of King Humbert are available. It happened so quickly and unexpectedly that the king was dead almost before the spectators realized what had occurred. No special precautions had been taken. Very few police were in attendance, and only a small guard of soldiers was keeping the way clear for the carriage. The king, amid the cheers of the crowd, came out smiling, accompanied by his aide-de-camp, Gen. Ponzio Baglia. He had entered the carriage and was just driving off when the revolver shots were fired in quick succession. Some witnesses assert that Bressi was seen previously waving his hands and cheering. The first shot wounded the king in the neck; the second, the fatal one, pierced his heart, and the third broke the arm of the dying sovereign.

The crowd was stunned by the unexpected scene, but speedily a rush was made toward the assassin. He did not attempt to escape, and was roughly treated until the carabinieri formed a cordon and hurried him from the fury of the people.

An eyewitness says that immediately after the shots were fired the king fell back, pressing his hand to his heart. He was instantly supported by Gen. Ponzio Baglia, who told the carabinieri to drive with him to the castle. After his exclamation, "It is nothing," he did not utter a word. Blood gushed from his mouth. The royal carriage overturned, the distance between the gymnastic society club house, where the crime was committed, and the royal villa at full speed, requiring only three minutes. The king expired on the way, and, although placed on a bed, was dead when the doctors arrived.

When Queen Margherita arrived at the villa it was still hoped that the king would survive, and when the truth was broken to her a heart-rending scene ensued. Bussing into tears she exclaimed: "It is the greatest crime of the century. Humbert was good and faithful. No person could have loved his people more. He was one who bore ill will to none."

When the queen's mother arrived there was another affecting scene.

The assassin on receiving the carabinieri's guard room was in a pitiable condition, his hands and arms being lacerated and his clothes torn by the angry crowd. Replying to a question, he said through his clenched teeth:

"I will all I come from America on purpose to kill Humbert. I have just only arrived from America and know no one. I spent a day at Bologna and then came on to Monza."

A search was made at his home at Prato, which resulted in the finding of several compromising letters from New York. One signed by a woman was dated June 25. In this letter the writer asks whether all is ready, and expresses a hope that he will soon return.

Bressi had been absent from Prato for six or seven years. His parents live there, and he has a brother in an Italian infantry regiment. In reference to the finding of an other revolver, it is asserted that Bressi had been seen in company with a young man in the neighborhood near where the king was in the habit of riding.

After his arrest he appeared weak and nervous and was kept in the cell but from that time he kept steadily until midday. He takes his meals without any sign of being affected by his position.

ALL ITALY MOURNS.

Deep Sorrow felt Throughout the Entire Country over the Death of the King.

Rome, July 31.—Thousands of telegrams have been received from all parts of the country indicative of the deep sorrow felt by the whole nation. Everywhere work was suspended and the houses and theaters were closed. In the principal cities the municipal authorities are considering the honor the memory of the dead monarch. At Messina a procession marched through the streets cheering for

HOPE IS REVIVED.

Some of the Foreigners in Peking Are Probably Yet Among the Living.

THE BRITISH MINISTER LEAD FROM

After a Four Week's Siege an Armistice Was Arranged Which Has Existed Since July 16.

All the Women and Children Were in the British Legation—A Strict Cordon Is Drawn Around the Foreigners.

London, July 31.—The admiralty has made public the following dispatch from Mr. Adm. Bruce, at Tientsin: "Following message from Peking: 'British legation, Peking, June 20 to July 16 repeatedly attacked by Chinese troops on all sides. Both rifle and artillery fire. Since July 16 an armistice, but a cordon is strictly drawn on both sides of the position. Chinese harries close to ours. 'All women and children are in the British legation. Casualties to date 62 killed, including Capt. Strouts. A number of wounded in hospital, including Capt. Halliday. Report of legation all well, except David Oliphant and Warren, killed July 21. 'MacDonald.'"

Sir Claude MacDonald's welcome dispatch, dated Peking, July 21, and received in cipher, is accepted on all sides as dispelling any doubts that might still have existed regarding the genuineness of the dispatch. Owing to an error in transmission, the message falls to show the number of wounded. David Oliphant and Warren were killed. The dispatch also mentions the other legations and other matters of pressing importance, but it should be borne in mind that the British minister may not be aware that his previous dispatches have been suppressed. He may be under the impression that the government is fully rested regarding all recent occurrences.

Apart from this dispatch there is practically no fresh news, although a special from Tientsin asserts that the British and American forces are getting ready to advance within 48 hours.

Li Hung Chang remains at Shanghai. He says that the great heat prevents him from continuing the journey to Peking.

WAITING FOR NEWS.

Every Effort Being Made By the United States to Hear From Minister Conger.

Washington, July 31.—The effect of the news from China is to freshen the hope that the government can soon hear from Mr. Conger. In direct communication with the minister, the mass of testimony as to his being alive as late as the 22d inst. is now so great as to warrant the department in resuming consideration of projects for the future. With all of its anxiety to get Mr. Conger and the Americans in Peking safely away, the department is proceeding with proper caution and by no means disposed to accept any proposition that would unduly jeopardize their lives. Such a result of the result of an off-hand acceptance of the proposition to have the Chinese government deliver the foreign ministers and their families, for it is realized that the escort might be overpowered by superior forces of Boxers on the way to the sea.

The state department has come to the conclusion that Mr. Conger himself is the best person to judge of the conditions under which his delivery should be effected, and therefore it is again looking to the Chinese government to place it in communication with Mr. Conger, in order that it may be advised by him. That requirement was the first of the conditions laid down by President McKinley in his answer to the appeal of the Chinese emperor, so that the situation diplomatically can not be said to have been materially changed by the latest developments.

The state department was inclined to regard Consul Fowler's suggestion as the most valuable piece of contradictory evidence yet received touching the safety of the Peking diplomats. No answer has been received to the second Conger message, but, in view of Consul Fowler's news, the officials are inclined to look forward to an early reply.

It is known here that Germany is one of the powers which are directing forth every effort to get into direct communication with the beleaguered ministers, and, on the "underground" route. An object of special solicitude is to discover whether Baroness von Ketteler has escaped, or whether she shared the fate of her husband. Up to the present nothing has been received to throw any light on the subject.

Trying to Open Communication.

London, July 31.—Sir Chih Chen, Chinese minister in London, has been notified by telegram that Li Hung Chang, conjointly with other viceroys and governors, has memorialized the throne to urge the immediate sending of the foreign representatives to the legation at Tientsin, or the restoration to them of free telegraphic communication with their governments.
